Dear Pam,

We are pleased to inform you that the above referenced trademark has been registered with China Trademark Office (TMO). Enclosed please find the Certificate of Trademark Registration. An English translation of the Registration Certificate is attached for your information.

Please draw your attention to the following points:

1. Any alteration of the registered trademark or extension to the list of goods/services designated will require the filing of a new trademark application for registration.
2. Any change in the registrant's name or address will require the filing of an application for modification of the registered trademark.
3. Trademark assignment is required to be recorded with the TMO and the assignment shall become effective after the recordal is approved.
4. If a license agreement for a registered trademark is signed, an Application for a Recording of License Agreement shall be filed with the TMO within three (3) months from the execution of the license agreement.

5. Failure to use the registered mark for three (3) consecutive years in China will subject the registration to cancellation. This use requirement may be satisfied by evidence of use, e.g., invoices or the use of the registered trademark in advertisements or exhibitions in China.
6. The trademark registration may be renewed for a ten (10) year period from the date of expiration. The Trademark Renewal Application should be filed within the six (6) – month period preceding the expiration of the registration. There is also a grace period of six (6) – months following the expiration of a registration; during this time, an application for renewal may be filed at an additional fee.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at your earliest convenience.

Please acknowledge the safe receipt of our letter.

Yours truly,
