

The Model Context Protocol (MCP) community has maintained an active, globally recognised presence since the protocol was developed by Anthropic in 2024 and transitioned to the neutral administrative governance of AAIL in 2025. Prior to the opening of the application submission period for the applied-for gTLD, this established presence was demonstrated by documented open source collaborations on GitHub and the active indexing of compliant implementations in the official public MCP Registry.

Initial announcement

<https://www.anthropic.com/news/model-context-protocol>

One Year Anniversary announcement

<https://modelcontextprotocol.info/blog/first-mcp-anniversary/>

General Information

<https://github.com/modelcontextprotocol>

MCP Community Governance

<https://modelcontextprotocol.io/community/governance>

MCP Community Contribution

<https://modelcontextprotocol.io/community/contributing>

MCP Community Communication

<https://modelcontextprotocol.io/community/communication>

MCP Community Working and Interest Groups

<https://modelcontextprotocol.io/community/working-interest-groups>

MCP Registry

<https://modelcontextprotocol.io/registry/about>