Deadline for Registration of Renewal of the Duration

Expiration date of the 10th year (deadline): April 13, 2028 (Heisei 40)

(Note) If the payment deadline falls on a holiday of an administrative agency, the following day shall be the last day of the period.

Procedure for Registration of Renewal of the Duration

- To renew the trademark right, please carry out the procedure by means of an "Application for Registration of Renewal of the Duration of a Trademark Right" during the period from six months before the expiration date of the 10 years counted from the registration date until the expiration date.

- If the procedure could not be carried out within the above period, the duration of the trademark right may be renewed by additionally paying double the registration fee together with the "Application for Registration of Renewal of the Duration of a Trademark Right," provided that this is done within six months after the expiration date.

- If the application is not filed within the period during which additional payment is permitted, the trademark right shall be deemed to have lapsed retroactively as of the payment deadline.

- For the form of the "Application for Registration of Renewal of the Duration of a Trademark Right" and the amount of the registration fee, please refer to the Japan Patent Office website (<http://www.jpo.go.jp/indexj.htm>).

[IMPORTANT] With regard to the procedure for registration of renewal of the duration, the Japan Patent Office does not send any notice concerning the procedure, so please manage the expiration of the duration yourself.
