

Financial Evaluation Self-Certification

China Internet Network Information Center (“CNNIC”) hereby makes the following self-certification and solemn declaration, pursuant to the application requirements, with respect to its application for allocatable variant top-level domain(s) corresponding to the existing generic top-level domain “. 网 络 ” and matters related to its operational qualifications. The contents of this statement are true, accurate, and complete.

I. CNNIC is a domain name registry operator lawfully established and validly existing in accordance with applicable law. It possesses the complete legal capacity and corresponding statutory operational qualifications required to conduct generic top-level domain (“gTLD”) business, and is a compliant registry operator within the industry. CNNIC strictly observes all operational norms, regulatory rules, and management requirements applicable to the domain name industry, and conducts gTLD-related operation and management activities on a regular and compliant basis. Its business operations are lawful, compliant, standardized, and orderly throughout the entire process.

II. CNNIC solemnly undertakes to provide long-term, stable, and sufficient financial support for all existing gTLDs and for all gTLD strings newly applied for in this application. CNNIC has the ability to fully support the orderly implementation of all processes relating to gTLD domain name system operation and maintenance, cybersecurity protection, compliant business management, technological iteration and upgrades, and business system optimization. CNNIC will comprehensively ensure the long-term stable operation and compliant, standardized management of all types of gTLD business, and will effectively fulfill its responsibilities as a domain name operator as well as its statutory obligations relating to financial support.

III. CNNIC strictly complies with all laws and regulations, regulatory rules, and industry management requirements applicable in its jurisdiction, and conducts daily management, financial accounting, and business operations in accordance with law and compliance requirements. CNNIC's financial statements over the years have truthfully, accurately, and completely reflected its financial position, operating results, and cash flows, and contain no false records, misleading statements, or material omissions. During its existence and operation, CNNIC has consistently maintained good credit standing, with no adverse circumstances such as abnormal business operations, credit-related default records, regulatory penalties, or failure to fulfill compliance obligations. CNNIC strictly submits various qualification certificates and filing materials on time in accordance with regulatory requirements; pays all fees and taxes in full and in accordance with law; fully performs all financial obligations and compliance responsibilities; and routinely maintains filing and registration information with competent authorities at all levels, ensuring that all publicly disclosed and filed information is updated in real time, true, accurate, compliant, and valid.

China Internet Network Information Center

Authorized Signatory: _____

Title: CNNIC Director

Date: 2026.7.20

